

Motivating your child

- Try to stick to a daily routine – you could use the structure from The Education Endowment Fund
- Encourage your child to submit their work through Show My Homework- we know how important feedback is to motivate your child
- Suggest following the regular school timetable at home, only completing work for subjects they would have that day
- Celebrate! Share your child's hard work with us through Show My Homework or staff email. We know how important success is to motivate your child

Supporting home learning routines Planning the day

Consistent routines are important for behaviour and wellbeing in school and our routines at home have changed significantly. Routines support behaviour and you will be finding a new rhythm with your family. You could share this checklist with your child. Talk to them to help them plan their new routines.

The importance of simple approaches as part of a regular routine is key recommendation 4 of the EEF's guidance report Improving Behaviour in Schools
