

Parent Bulletin 14/11/25

*Lord of peace and compassion,
This week we pause to remember those who gave their lives in service and sacrifice.
May their courage inspire us to live with kindness, hope, and unity.
Bless all who mourn, and guide us to be peacemakers in our world.
Amen.*

Welcome Message

Welcome to week 2 of the half term. This week, our pupils attended workshops by 'No More County Lines' which focused on raising awareness and promoting safety within the community. We also marked Anti-Bullying Week with tailored assemblies across year groups, reinforcing the importance of kindness and respect. In addition, most of our Year 11 students have now completed their mock exams.

Assembly Focus

This week's assembly focused on Anti-Bullying Week, with the theme 'Power for Good.' Throughout the week, students have been encouraged to reflect on how they can use their influence positively and help create a safe, respectful environment for everyone. Our school community has been considering practical ways to ensure bullying does not take place and to promote kindness and support among peers.

No More County Lines

This week, we welcomed 'No More County Lines' into school to deliver important sessions to pupils across all year groups. These workshops are designed to help students understand how to protect themselves in the wider community from risks associated with organised crime, including drug-related activity and grooming. Each session was carefully tailored to be informative and age-appropriate. All years thoroughly enjoyed their session.

Remembrance Day

On Tuesday, 11th November, our pupils marked Remembrance Day, a time to commemorate the end of World War I and honour those who gave their lives in military service. As part of this observance, the Last Post was played in school and pupils took part in a two-minute silence, reflecting respectfully on the significance of the day. We would also like to extend our thanks to the pupils who represented All Saints at the Dukinfield War Memorial on Sunday and laid a wreath on behalf of the school.

Year 11 Presentation Evening – Class of 2025

We are delighted to announce that our Year 11 Presentation Evening for the Class of 2025 will take place Thursday 27th November. This special event celebrates the achievements of last year's cohort and includes awards for academic excellence and outstanding achievement across all subjects. Pupils will receive invitations by letter, and further details will be shared soon.
